The 6th March, 2024

No. 01/PCCF-MISC/2020/Case No. 22(AP)/2022/3377-91.—The Hon'ble Governor, Arunachal Pradesh is pleased to accord sanction for the creation of Special Tiger Protection Force (STPF) for Pakke, Namdapha and Kamlang Tiger Reserves as per the following terms and conditions stipulated by the National Tiger Conservation Authority under Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Government of India in the Guidelines for constituting the Special Tiger Protection Force (STPF) - Option-II (comprising of forest personnel) issued vide letter No. 15-5/2008-NTCA (Part-III), dated the 9th January, 2013.

1. Name of the Force

The force will be known as Special Tiger Protection Force (STPF).

2. Aim and objective of the STPF

The main aim and objective of the STPF would be

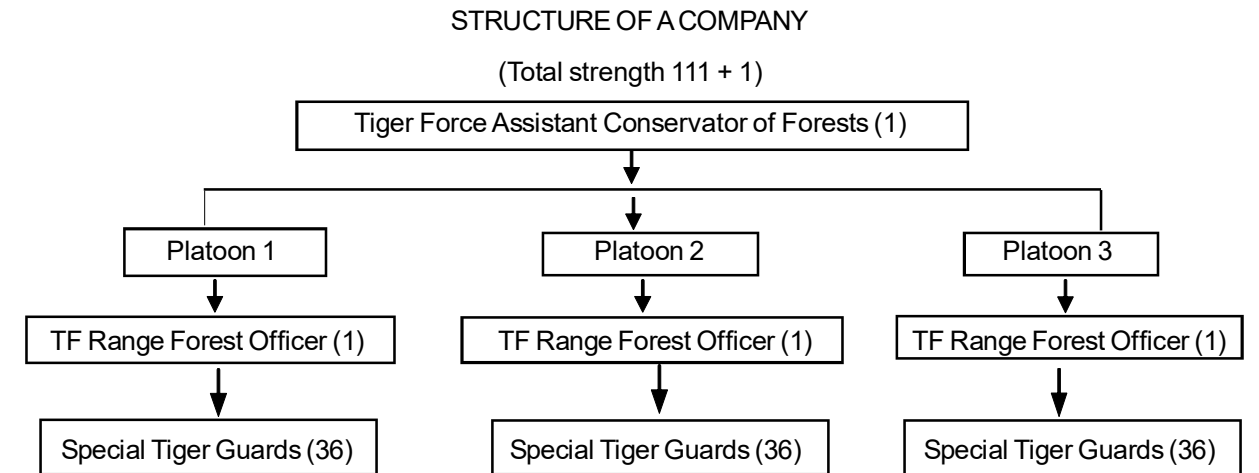

- To safeguard forests and forest produce ;
- To protect tigers and their habitats ;
- To prevent smuggling of wildlife articles ;
- To protect wildlife habitats ;
- To protect and safeguard assets of the Environment, Forest and Climate Change department of the State including those of the Tiger Reserves ; and
- To assist in scientific management of the forests ;

3. Composition of the Force :

- The STPF will not be an "Armed Force of the Union", but a modest, dedicated force comprising of forest personnel as suited to tiger reserves, not conforming to the large scale of Central Forces.
- The STPF would be comprised of 3 companies and would be a specialized Force with its own structure and composition as required for tiger reserves. A company would be distributed into 3 Platoons and 18 Sections. The Company would be headed by an officer of the rank of Assistant conservator of Forest and Platoon by an officer of the rank of Range Forest Officer.
- Each company (of 112 personnel) of the STPF would be headed by the Tiger Force Assistant Conservator of Forests and three Tiger Force Range Officers.
- The STPF personnel would serve in the force till the age of 40 years and should be transferred to the normal functioning duties of the Environment, Forest and Climate Change department while ensuring new, suitable substitute recruitment. The STPF personnel would normally be posted in a same tiger reserve for a minimum tenure of three years for every single occasion.
- In all, there would be 108 Special Tiger Guards in a company, who would be equivalent to the rank of a regular Forest Guard in the State Forest Department. The appointment of all personnel would be done as per the existing rules and procedures. The STPF would be recognized as a separate cadre with due identity having professional competence through specialized training.
- The Force would comprise of one company of 112 personnel each for Pakke Tiger Reserve, Namdapha Tiger Reserve and Kamlang Tiger Reserve. Further each company is distributed into 3 Platoons and 18 Sections. The Company would be headed by an officer of the rank of Assistant conservator of Forests and Platoons by an officer of the rank of Range Forest Officer.

4. Structure of the company (112 Personnel) :

- (i) The company would comprise of three platoons, with each platoon under a Tiger Force Range Officer, assisted by 36 Special Tiger Guards.
- (ii) The Structure of a company is as given below :-.

The above posts shall be engaged on contractual basis with the remunerations specified against each post with the annual increment @5% every year.

- (v) The total number of regular/permanent and the contractual posts to be created for STPF is given in the following Table :-

Sl. No.	Name of Tiger Reserve	Regular Post	Contractual Post
1.	Pakke Tiger Reserve	112	34
2.	Namdapha Tiger Reserve	112	34
3.	Kamlang Tiger Reserve	112	34
	Total	336	102

5. Overall command and control :

- (i) The Tiger Force Assistant Conservator of Forests in-charge of the STPF and other personnel would work under the overall control and supervision of the Field Director of a Tiger Reserve. The administrative and operational command would be under the control of the Field Director of the tiger reserve. The NTCA, through the Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Project Tiger would pay the deployment charges to the State Government or reimburse such costs relating to STPF, on the line of India Reserve Battalion.
- (ii) Only during an emergency situation, the Ministry of Environment, Forest and climate Change, Government of India would have the authority to ask the State for deployment of the STPF companies from one reserve /area to another within the same State using the first right of call. Otherwise, the STPF would be under the overall administrative control of the State Authorities. The Government of India will also have full authority to ask the State Government to make the companies available for deployment elsewhere in other tiger reserves within the State, or in sensitive inter-state border areas for tiger protection. It will also have the right to decide the number of companies to be posted in each tiger reserve.
- (iii) In Arunachal Pradesh, the force would be in overall command and control of the Principal Chief Conservator of Forest (Wildlife & Biodiversity) and Chief Wildlife Warden. The day to day administrative and operational control of the Force would rest with the Field Director of the Tiger Reserve. The deployment of a section or a platoon thereof will, however, be decided by the Chief Wildlife Warden in consultation with the Field Director of the concerned Tiger Reserve. The Force Would be deployed in different forest areas of the Tiger Reserve, check gates, offices based on the exigencies of the situation and operational requirements pertaining to protection of forests and wildlife. It would also assist the forest officers in carrying out eviction of encroachments from the notified protected areas. However, it would not be engaged for law-and-order work under the civil administration unless required in the event of extreme urgency/ emergency and only after approval of the NTCA.
- (iv) As the STPF has to carry out sensitive operations, it would be equipped with the advanced weapons as per guidelines of the NTCA. Provision would be made for wireless sets, mobile phones, satellite phones and other specialised communication and technical equipment needed for communication and surveillance.

6. Recruitment :

- (i) The recruitment for the STPF would be the done through Arunachal Pradesh Staff Selection Board (APSSB) for Group-C posts and Arunachal Pradesh Public Service Commission (APPSC) for Group - A and Group - B posts in consultation with the Arunachal Pradesh Environment, Forest and Climate Change Department, subject to the educational qualifications and physical standards prescribed as per rule. The age limit is fixed as per the RR of Forest Guard to be adapted for the recruitment of Special Tiger Guards of STPF. The age limit for direct recruitment of Special Tiger Guards is fixed between 18 to 32 years, relaxable 5 (Five) years for APST as per provisions of the existing RR. The direct recruitment process will continue on regular basis as per the vacancies arises in STPF.After attaining the age of 40 years, the STPF Special Tiger Guards will be transferred out of STPF to the normal functioning duties as Forest Guard against the existing vacancies of direct recruitment of regular Forest Guards in the EF&CC Department (on priority basis by anticipating and planning such arrangements well in advance by the department). Such transferred Special Tiger Guards posts will be counted as vacancy in STPF Special Tiger Guards of that respective Tiger Reserve. The Special Tiger Guards after getting transferred from STPF to the normal functioning of the Department, they shall be entitled for all the benefits of normal regular Forest Guards of the Department including promotions (the recruitment seniority will be kept intact throughout the service period).
- (ii) Recruitment to the posts of Special Tiger Guards of the STPF companies would be done through direct recruitment as per the existing RR of the Forest Guard in the Department, while the STPF Assistant Conservator of Forests and the STPF Range Forest Officers would be posted to the Force from the Environment, Forest Department and Climate Change department of the State on their own pay scale without any extra remuneration and the STPF created posts of ACF & RFO would be added to the already existing posts of the department and recruited as per the existing RR of the respective posts.

- (iii) The Assistant Conservator of Forests and the Range Officers would be selected from the State Cadre to the STPF through a Selection Committee comprising of State Government officials and representatives from the Police and Paramilitary Forces to ensure required physical standards, aptitude and age below 40 years. The RFO and Special Tiger Guards will wear the uniform as per their entitlements in the existing uniform code of the department (Special Tiger Guards will be treated as Forest Guards for all such purposes). The ACF shall also wear the uniform in the Force which is equivalent in the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police (Dy. SP) in the Police Department of the State.
- (iv) On attainment of the age of 40 years, STPF personnel would be transferred to other units of the State Forest Department. The State Government would concur to transfer the STPF personnel in the regular establishment of Environment, Forest and Climate Change department after such personnel attain the age of 40 years for posting in any area within the said department, other than tiger reserves.
- (v) In all, there would be 108 Special Tiger Guards in a company, who would be equivalent to the rank of a regular Forest Guard in the Environment, Forest and Climate Change department and recruited without compromising the physical standards. The appointment of all personnel would be done by the State Government as per existing rules and procedures. The STPF would be recognized as a separate cadre with due identity having professional competence through specialized training.

7. Legal immunity to STPF for discharging the official mandate :

- (i) The STPF personnel, being forest officers, will have powers as conferred to them by law.
- (ii) The State Government would confer powers to the STPF personnel under sub-section (3) of Section 197 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), and all powers enabling it in that behalf, the power to use fire arms to combat tiger poaching and related offence within the tiger habitat, through a notification. In this context, sub-section (2) of Section 197 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) would be made applicable to all personnel of the STPF.
- (iv) Whenever, firing is resorted to by the STPF personnel, each such incident shall be enquired into by the Executive Magistrate ; any proceeding, including instituting a criminal case or arrest can be initiated only if it is held, as a result of the Magisterial Enquiry, that the use of fire arms has been unnecessary, unwarranted and excessive and only after such report has been accepted by the Government after due examination.

8. Training :

- (i) The STPF personnel would receive special training from the State Police Department as well as the Paramilitary Forces, based on a special syllabus for skill development, combating poaching and enabling intelligence-based enforcement in a forest terrain.
- (ii) The training of the STPF would be on the pattern of a special syllabus of basic training which would include wildlife crime control and wildlife management, as prescribed by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change through NTCA, in consultation with the Ministry of Home Affairs.
- (iii) A Special Capsule Course at the Wildlife Institute of India and the State Police Academy would be organized for the Assistant Conservator of Forests and the Range Forest Officers to impart the necessary skills relating to the STPF.
- (iv) A specialized commando training (including physical fitness) would be designed with the help of State Police and National Security Guard for the STPF personnel.
- (v) Arrangements would be made for regular physical training of STPF in collaboration with suitable agencies.
- (vi) Specialized trainings would be provided in enforcement procedures by noted agencies including international visits if the need arises.
- (vii) The STPF would be given a special identity by prescribing a special uniform to enable recognition.
- (viii) The training cost incurred by the State in the context of STPF would be supported under the Training component of the ongoing Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Project Tiger (need-based).

9. Deployment of STPF :

The STPF would be deployed in Tiger Reserves of Arunachal Pradesh.

10. Financial implications :

- (i) The initial funding support for raising, arming and deploying the STPF would be provided from the one-time grant given to the Project Tiger / National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA), and would be supported subsequently in an ongoing manner through 90% central assistance from the ongoing Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Project Tiger and remaining 10% from the Arunachal Pradesh State Government.

- (ii) The abstract of the cost details relating to salary, procurement of vehicles, arms and ammunition, infrastructure, the detailed cost estimation as per the NTCA standing guidelines are provided in the Annexures-I (A) to I (F).
- (iii) The MoEF and CC will bear 90% of the total expenditure (Recurring and Non-recurring)and the Arunachal Pradesh State Government will bear the remaining 10% of the total cost initially for a period of 5 years to set up STPF and its maintenance. The same will continue beyond 5 years as per the agreed terms and conditions of the MoU with the 90:10 ratio of funding by Government of India and Government of Arunachal Pradesh respectively.
- (iv) Further, the cost estimates are only indicative as per the present guidelines of NTCA, the same is subjected to be revised as per the cost escalation and introduction of new guideline.
