JUDGEMENT

H.L. Gokhale J

This statutory appeal under Section 116A of the Representation of the People's Act, 1951, seeks to challenge the judgement and order of the Gauhati High Court dated 12th November, 2012, allowing the Election Petition No. 1(AP) of 2009, renumbered as Election Petition No. 1 (AP) of 2012, filed by the Respondent No. 1 whereby the election of the appellant from 20-Tali (ST) constituency of the Arunachal Pradesh Assembly was declared void, and whereby the first respondent was declared elected to the State Legislative Assembly from the said constituency. After passing of the said judgement and order, the appellant applied for the stay of the said order, and the learned Judge by his order dated 16th November, 2012 stayed the impugned judgement and order for a period of 14 days from the date of the said order. He made it clear that the appellant will have the right to participate in the assembly proceedings but will not have the right to vote and will not be entitled to any remuneration as an elected member of the assembly. This appeal, therefrom, was admitted on 27th November, 2012, and by the order passed on that date by this Court, the above order dated 16th November, 2012 was directed to continue to remain in operation.

This interim order has been subsequently continued until further orders.

2. Facts leading to this appeal are as follows. The appellant and the respondent No. 1 herein contested the election to the Arunachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly from 20-Tali (ST) Assembly Constituency held in October 2009. The respondent No. 1 was the sitting MLA from the said constituency at the time when the election was held, and the Government formed by the Indian National Congress was in power in the State. The appellant was a candidate of the People's Party of Arunachal Pradesh (PPA), and the first respondent was that of the Indian National Congress. The voting took place on 13th October, 2009, and the appellant was declared elected on 22nd October, 2009, defeating his nearest rival the respondent No. 1, by 2713 votes. Respondent No. 1 filed Election Petition No. 01/2009 to challenge the election of the appellant on the ground of corrupt practice of booth capturing.

3. This 20-Tali (ST) Assembly Constituency consists of two circles viz. (i) Tali, and (ii) Pipsorang. Each of the circles was having 10 polling stations. It was alleged in the petition by the first respondent that on two polling stations viz. (i) 7-Roing and (ii) 2-Ruhi from circle Tali, Boxes (containing EVMs) were illegally removed by the party workers of the appellant, and votes in favour of the appellant were cast single handedly. The genuine voters were not allowed to exercise their voting rights as they were threatened for their lives by the miscreants of the appellant. It was claimed that polling agents of the first respondent, at these two polling stations, jointly reported about the happenings in these polling stations on 15th October, 2009, to the Assistant Returning Officer. It was further alleged that such incidents also took place in 6 more polling stations.

4. It was stated in para 9 of the petition, that it was necessary to bring the EVMs and counter foils of Form 17A (register of voters) of these 8-polling stations (mentioned in para-7 of the petition) for forensic test and other examinations etc. before the Hon'ble Court for proper adjudication of the case. It was claimed that the votes received by the appellant in these 8-polling stations were 3763, and if they were deleted from the votes of appellant, the first respondent would be declared as elected. It was prayed that the records of (i) register of voters counterfoils (Form 17-A) of these 8-polling stations described in paragraph 7 of the petition, (ii) EVMs of these 8 polling stations, and (iii) records relating to 20-Tali (ST) Assembly Constituency be called, and the appellant be directed to show cause as to why votes cast by booth capturing in 8 polling stations, in favour of the appellant, should not be declared as illegal, and the election order dated 22nd October, 2009 not be declared as void, and why the respondent No. 1 should not be declared as the elected candidate.

5. The petition was contested by the appellant by filing a written statement. He submitted that no unfair means were employed by him, or by his agents, and stated that the allegation of illegal practice adopted in 8 polling stations is completely false. He submitted that the election was conducted peacefully with free and fair means. The polling stations were guarded by police personnel who carried arms and ammunition. There was no booth capturing or criminal intimidation at all. EVMs and voters' counterfoils were duly verified at the Receiving Centre, and there was no need to call for any of these documents, nor was there any question to declare the election void.

6. Thereafter, the learned Judge by his order dated 8th March, 2010 formulated the following issues :- (i) Whether the Election Petition is maintainable? ; (ii) Whether the polling team of 7-Roing polling station along with the EVM were kidnapped on 12th October, 2009 by PPA Workers? ; (iii) Whether booth capturing was committed at 2-Ruhi and 5-Guchi polling stations on 13th October, 2009 by PPA workers, including the Petitioner? ; (iv) Whether any offence of booth capturing was committed at any of the other 5 polling stations; (v) Whether Annexures 1 to 9 to the Election Petition are forged, fabricated and an afterthought? ; (vi) Whether the election of the returned candidate Markio Tado is liable to be declared void? ; and (vii) Whether the Election Petitioner is entitled to be declared elected?.

7. It is relevant to note that, before the evidence could start, the first respondent filed Interlocutory Application No. 6 of 2010 in the said Election Petition on 29th March, 2010. In para 1 thereof he submitted as follows :-

"1. That your applicants beg to state and submit that some thousand of voters of those 8 polling stations viz. (i) Giba, (ii) Tungmar, (iii) 15-Richik, (iv) 7-Roing, (v) 10-Yarda, (vi) 5-Guchi, (vii) 8-Dotte, (viii) 2-Ruhi of 20 Tali (ST) Assembly Constituency have double entry in different 38 polling stations of 13-(ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency. So far your applicant Knowledge is concerned about 80% of the voters of 20-(ST) Tali Assembly Constituency from those 8 polling stations viz. (i) 6-Giba, (ii) 4-Tugnmar, (iii) 15-Richik, (iv) 7-Roing, (v) 10-Yarda, (vi) 5-Guchi, (vii) 8-Dotte, (viii) 2-Ruhi have cast their votes at 13- (ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency and not at 20-(ST) Tali Constituency".

Thereafter, he gave the list of 38 polling stations of Itanagar Constituency. He claimed that the total number of such voters, who had their names in those 38 polling stations, was 1304. He, therefore, prayed that the record of register of voters counterfoils (Form 17-A) of the above 38 polling stations of 13-(ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency from the District Returning Officer, District Papum Pare be called.

8. This application was opposed by the appellant. The learned Single Judge noted the submissions on behalf of the respondent No. 1. He also noted the submissions on behalf of the appellant that there was no allegation of double enrollment, and no issue had been framed in this respect in the election petition, and therefore the application was liable to be dismissed. Having noted the submissions, the learned Single Judge rejected the said application by his order dated 31st March, 2010 observing " I am of the considered view that calling of records as sought for by the applicant is not justified at this stage."

9. When the evidence was recorded, PW (1) stated that 1 person voted for another person. PW (2) stated that she was not allowed to enter the polling station, and yet she stated that there was single handed voting. PW (3) was the polling agent of the respondent No. 1, but he did not state that he lodged any complaint about whatever had happened at the polling station. PW (4) stated that he was not allowed to enter the polling station. He stated that the workers of both the parties were not allowed to enter the polling station, but at the same time he said that the polling agents of both the parties were inside the polling station. He has filed no complaint. PW(5) made some interesting statements. He stated that he was the agent of the Indian National Congress, and he was forced to vote for his candidate. He also stated that he did not file any complaint with the presiding officer. PW(6) also made similar interesting statements in the sense that it was proposed that a few votes be casts in favour of Indian National Congress. It is relevant to note that at the polling station, where he cast his vote, Indian National Congress got 42 votes. PW (7) was the polling agent of the first respondent at the Roing polling station. He claims to have lodged the complaint, but he does not know who wrote that complaint. PW (8) stated in his cross-examination that he does not know whether any polling officer was kidnapped. PW (9) makes an interesting statement that he was forced to cast some votes for the Indian National Congress.

10. Thereafter, the first respondent PW (10) went into the witness box on 4th April, 2010. In his examination in Chief, he stated that he had sent a fax message to the Returning Officer of 20-Tali (ST) Assembly Constituency on 15th October, 2009 alleging the booth capturing of 2-Ruhi and 7-Roing polling stations. He stated that he had complained about the booth capturing in 6 more polling stations, and produced copies of complaints. He stated that there was single handed voting in favour of the appellant, and first respondent's voters were threatened and not allowed to cast their votes. He further stated that a large number of voters had double entries in the electoral roll of 20 Tali (ST) as well as Itanagar (ST) Assembly Constituency. They had actually cast their votes at 38 different polling stations of 13-(ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency, and in their place votes were cast in Tali Constituency by the miscreants of the appellant. The electoral rolls of the two constituencies were to be exhibited. He further pointed out that a vote was cast against a dead person by name Markio Tama from 2-Ruhi polling station, and the death certificate of the person concerned was produced.

11. The first respondent, in his cross examination on 9th June, 2010, accepted that he had not made any averments in the election petition regarding double enrollment of the voters in the two Assembly Constituencies. He accepted that he was aware that the final electoral rolls were published by the authorities concerned before the election was held, prior to which the draft roll was published for information of the voters concerned, and that he did not lodge any complaint before the authorities concerned about the double enrollment in the two constituencies. He explained it by stating that he did not know that such double enrollment had taken place. He could not say who actually cast the vote for Markio Tama, who had already expired.

12. The first respondent accepted that he had appointed his polling agents for all the polling stations. He knew about the duties of the polling agents which included raising objection in case of detection of any impersonation during the polling time, before the Presiding Officer concerned by filling up a prescribed form alongwith a fee of Rs. 2. He stated that his polling agents were not allowed to enter into the polling booths, and the candidates appointed by the appellant acted as fake polling agents for the first respondent. He however, accepted that he has not stated in election petition that the candidates appointed by the opposite party had acted as fake polling agents for him. He further accepted that his complaint to the Returning Officer did not mention all the 8 polling stations. It mentioned only about 2 polling stations. He also accepted that he did not mention the names of persons involved in booth capturing. He stated in his examination-in-Chief itself as follows.—

"I have no direct evidence regarding casting of votes by impersonation by the booth capturing party but it can be proved if the finger prints and thumb impression taken and the signatures put in Form 17A of the respective polling station are compared by the respective votes."

13. The first respondent had alleged that in two polling stations viz. Ruhi and Roing, booth capturing had taken place which was on the basis that in Ruhi the first respondent got only 3 votes as against appellant getting 697 votes, and in Roing he got only one vote as against the appellant getting 1196 votes. On this aspect, it was put to him that there were two circles in this constituency viz. Tali and Pipsorang. The above two polling stations were in Tali Circle. The first respondent accepted that the returned candidate secured no vote in 11-Vovia polling station. He also accepted that the returned candidate secured only 7 votes in 13-Zara polling station, both falling in Pipsorang circle. Thereafter, he accepted that.

"It may be correct that securing less vote by a candidate may be due to his less attachment to the people of a particular area and it may also be the one of the reasons for losing the election."

The first respondent also accepted that Micro Observers were appointed in all the polling stations and they were provided with digital cameras for their use, as and when required during the election, for all the purposes.

14. It was at that stage that the first respondent moved another application viz. Misc. Case No. 05(AP) of 2010 on 29th June, 2010. In that application he repeated that some of the voters of the 8-polling stations mentioned earlier, had double entries in different 38 polling stations of 13 Itanagar (ST) Assembly Constituency. In para 2 he stated that 30% of voters of Tali Constituency, from those 8 polling stations, had cast their votes in Itanagar and not in Tali, and in their place the double voting was effected on behalf of the appellant, and therefore it was necessary to get the record of the voters' counterfoils (in Form 17A) from the 38 polling stations under 13-(ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency. The appellant opposed this application. The counsel for the appellant submitted that this was a fishing inquiry to improve the case. This time however, the learned Judge observed :

"This allegation sounds to be new one, but when it is closely examined, it also comes under the purview of booth capturing because votes by impersonation is one of the modus operandi adopted towards accomplishment of securing votes by use of illegal method or illegal resource."

15. The learned Judge referred to a judgement of this Court in Hari Ram Vs. Hira Singh reported in AIR 1984 SC 396, that electoral rolls and counter foils should be called sparingly, and only when sufficient material is placed before the Court. He also referred to a judgement of this Court in Fulena Singh Vs. Vijoy Kr. Sinha reported in 2009 (5) SCC 290 wherein it was held that inspection of the record of register of voters in Form 17-A would be permissible where a clear case is made out. The learned Judge held that the official record would be the most reliable evidence to decide as to whether there was impersonation, and thereafter passed the order calling for the record of registers of voters' counterfoils in form 17A from 38 polling stations of 13-(ST) Itanagar Assembly Constituency, which order was challenged by the appellant by filing one SLP earlier.

16. This earlier petition was numbered as Civil Appeal No. 1539 of 2012 which came to be decided by this Court on 2.12.2012. It was pointed out on behalf of the appellant that the Election Petition was filed on the basis of corrupt practice of booth capturing, and what was being canvassed on behalf of the respondent No. 1 was the allegation of impersonation/double voting on the part of the appellant. It was submitted on behalf of the appellant that booth capturing is a specific corrupt practice under section 123(8) read with section 135A of 1951 Act. Booth capturing involves use of force, whereas impersonation or double voting is on the basis of deception. This submission was accepted by this Court. This was apart from the fact that impersonation or double voting would lead to improper reception of votes, which is another ground for declaring an election to be void under section 100 (1) (d) (iii) of the Act, and this ground was not pleaded in the petition nor was any issue frame thereon for trial. It was canvassed on behalf of the appellant that double voting or impersonation could not be considered as facets of booth capturing which was also accepted by this Court.

17. This Court while deciding Civil Appeal No.1539 of 2012 noted that there was hardly any evidence to justify any plea of impersonation or double voting. Therefore, this Court held in the said appeal, that it was thus obvious that having failed to place any material with respect to either booth capturing or impersonation, the first respondent was trying to make fishing and roving inquiry to improve his case by calling for the record of the voters register from Itanagar Constituency, in support of his grievance of double voting. In the absence of any evidence with respect to the persons who, at the instance of the appellant, allegedly captured the booths or made double voting or impersonation in Tali Constituency, no such inference could have been drawn. The learned Single Judge, therefore, was clearly in error in allowing the second application made by the first respondent.

18. As seen from the above, the learned Judge while deciding Misc. Case No. 5(AP) of 2010 had relied upon the judgment of this court in Fulena Singh (supra) to justify his direction to produce the record of register of voters' counterfoils in Form 17-A of 38 polling station of 13-(ST) Itanagar constituency. This court, therefore, while deciding Civil Appeal 1539 of 2012 explained the judgement in Fulena Singh, and the correct legal position with respect to the production of such records in court. It referred to the Constitution Bench judgment of this court in Ram Sevak Yadav V. Hussain Kamil Kidwai, reported in AIR 1964 Sc 1249, which has held that an order for inspection cannot be granted as a matter of course having regard to the secrecy of the ballot papers. To seek such an order two conditions are required to be fulfilled :

(i) that the petition for setting aside an election contains an adequate statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies in support of his case ; and

(ii) the tribunal is prima facie satisfied that in order to decide the dispute and to do complete justice between the parties inspection of the ballot papers is necessary. But an order for inspection of ballot papers cannot be made to support vague pleas made in the petition, not supported by material facts, or to fish out evidence to support such pleas. In the present case, there was no material whatsoever to justify the production of the register of counterfoils of votes in Form 17-A and therefore, this court allowed the said Civil Appeal and dismissed Misc. Case (EP) No. 05 (AP) of 2010 by judgement and order dated 2.2.2012.

19. Facts which had come on record clearly showed that the first respondent received overwhelming votes in some polling stations, whereas the appellant received similarly overwhelming votes in other polling stations. The first respondent had in fact accepted that it depended on the popularity of the candidate whether he would receive more votes in any particular voting station. Assuming that the ground of improper reception of votes could be raised for declaring the election to be void under section 100 (1) (d), this Court noted in the decision of C.A No. 1539 of 2012 as follows :-

"28. Besides, the ground of improper reception requires a candidate to show as to how the election in so far as it concerns the returned candidate was materially affected, in view of the requirement of Section 100 (1) (d) of the Act of 1951. First respondent has stated that there were some 1304 double entries of voters. The allegation of respondent No.1 on evidence was only with respect to Roing and Ruhi polling station. The votes received by the appellant in both these polling stations put together come to 1873. The appellant has won with a margin of 2713 votes. That being so the second application could not have been entertained even on that ground in the absence of prima facie case that the result of the election had been materially affected."

20. Therefore, this Court went into the issue as to whether the record of the voters' counterfoils in Form 17(A) from 38 polling station of 13 Itanagar (ST) Assembly Constituency could be called. It examined the relevant provisions of Rule 93 of Conduct of Elections rules, 1961 and the judgements governing the field, and held in this matter also as in Ram Sevak Yadav (supra), that an order for inspection of ballot papers could not be granted to support the vague pleas made in the petition not supported by material facts or to fish out the evidence to support such pleas. This Court therefore, allowed that appeal and set aside the judgment and order dated 14th September, 2010 and dismissed Misc. Case No. 5 (AP)/2010 dated 29th June, 2010. The judgment in Civil Appeal 1539 of 2012 in Markio Tado Vs. Takam Sorang and Ors. is reported in 2012 (3) SCC 236.

21. In this background when the matter proceeded further there was no occasion for the Court to once again call for that record. The learned Judge still passed an order on 19th March, 2012 on Misc. Case (EP) 06 (AP) of 2010 holding that :

"it is considered expedient to send the registers of voters (Form 17A) which were already procured from the District Election Authority under sealed cover to the Director of Regional Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL), Police Training Centre, Banderdewa, Arunachal Pradesh requesting him to conduct scientific examination and verification of signatures/finger prints appearing in Form 17A and to ascertain as to whether the thumb impression and signatures contained and recorded in Form 17A (voters register) were put single handedly and fraudulently by few persons as a measure of impersonation of the genuine voters concerned and after such scientific examination/verification to submit report to the Registry of this Court is sealed cover within 3rd of May, 2012. The registry was directed to take steps accordingly."

This order dated 19th March, 2012 passed by the learned Judge was challenged by the appellant by filing Special Leave Petition 12707 of 2012, by pointing out that such an order could not be made in the teeth of the judgment and order rendered by this Court in Civil Appeal No. 1539 of 2012. However, the appellant, preferred to withdraw the SLP No. 12707 of 2012 subsequently, with a liberty to agitate the questions raised therein, if required, when the main Election Petition was decided.

22. The learned Judge proceeded to examine court witnesses including finger print expert, CW3. Thereafter, the court examined the defence witnesses, and after hearing the arguments of the counsel for both the parties allowed the Election Petition, and held that the election of the petitioner was void. On the basis of the calculations of votes made by the learned judge, he held that the first respondent had received more votes, and therefore, declared him as elected from the constituency concerned. It is this order which is under challenge.

23. Now, as can be seen from the narration above, the Election Petition was filed only on the ground of booth capturing. The respondent No. 1 himself accepted that he could not name any person involved in the act of booth capturing. The evidence on record clearly showed that, apart from some allegations, there was no material evidence placed in support thereof. The petitioner tried to claim impersonation and double voting as a facet of booth capturing. This submission was already rejected by this Court while deciding C.A No. 1539 of 2012 (supra) by holding that impersonation and double voting would amount to deception and it will be a facet of improper reception of votes and not booth capturing. Booth capturing involves use of force and that was not established. The petition was not filed on the ground of improper reception of votes. Even if that ground was to be looked into, the respondent No. 1 accepted in his evidence that he had no direct evidence regarding casting of votes by impersonation.

24. The learned judge has clearly transgressed the limits of his jurisdiction, by going into the exercise of calling for the handwriting and finger print experts, and comparing the voters' signatures and finger prints with the help of the records in Form 17A, when that was clearly held to be impermissible in the present case itself. This is apart from the fact that this has resulted into a waste of the time of the Court, which is so precious. The evidence was recorded on a number of dates and so many witnesses, including public officers, were called when their evidence was not required. It would be relevant to refer to the observations of this Court in paragraph 12 of Azar Hussain V. Rajiv Gandhi reported in AIR 1986 SC 1253 in the context of rejecting an election petition summarily, at the threshold, where such a case is not made out. The observations are to the following effect,

"12 Learned counsel for the petitioner has next argued that in any event the powers to reject an election petition summarily under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure should not be exercised at the threshold. In substance, the argument is that the court must proceed with the trial, record the evidence, and only after the trial of the election petition is concluded that the powers under the Code of Civil Procedure for dealing appropriately with the defective petition which does not disclose cause of action should be exercised. With respect to the learned counsel, it is an argument which it is difficult to comprehend. The whole purpose of conferment of such powers is to ensure that a litigation which is meaningless and bound to prove abortive should not be permitted to occupy the time of the court and exercise the mind of the respondent. The sword of Damocles need not be kept hanging over his head unnecessarily without point or purpose."

(emphasis supplied)

25. The judge clearly ignored that the law declared by this Court is binding on all courts within the territory of India under Article 141 of the Constitution of India, and judicial discipline required him to follow the mandate of the Constitution. He entered into impermissible exercise, and deleted the votes received by the appellant which he considered to be tainted votes. It is quite shocking to see that the learned Judge has proceeded to delete the votes of the appellant from 8 polling stations, although the grievance was only about Ruhi and Roing polling stations. By making these deductions, he came to the conclusion that the respondent No. 1 had received 826 votes more. As can be seen from paragraph 28 of the Judgement, rendered in Civil Appeal No. 1539 of 2012, that at best the case of the first respondent was that there were double entries of voters in 1304 names. The allegation was only with respect to two polling stations. In those polling stations, the appellant had received 1873 votes. Even if these 1304 votes were to be deleted, it would not affect the result materially since the appellant had won with a margin of 2713 votes. The learned judge, therefore, ignored that even if the ground of improper reception of votes under section 100 (1)(d)(iii) was to be taken, the respondent No. 1 had failed to establish that the result of the election of the appellant had been materially affected by such improper reception of votes. The decision of the learned judge was therefore clearly flawed and untenable.

26. Thus, the learned judge went into the counterfoils of the voters inspite of the fact that this court had already ruled in the judgement in C.A. 1539 of 2010, that in the facts of the present case, no case was made out for calling of the counterfoils. It is not that he was unaware of the judgement rendered by this court. He referred to this judgement in para 9(i) by stating that CA No. 1539 of 2010 was preferred against his judgement and order dated 14th September, 2010. Thereafter, he specifically noted "the said Civil Appeal was allowed vide judgement and order dated 2nd February, 2012 dismissing the aforesaid M.C. (EP) No. 5 (AP) of 2010 under section 83(1) of the R.P. Act as reported in (2012) 3 SCC 236." Thereafter however he proceeded to act exactly contrary to the direction emanating from the dismissal of M.C (EP) No. 5 (AP) of 2010, which amounts to nothing but judicial indiscipline and disregard to the mandate of Article 141 of the Constitution of India. This is shocking, to say the least, and most unbecoming of a judge holding a high position such as that of a High Court Judge. We fail to see as to what made the judge act in such a manner, though we refrain from going into that aspect.

27. Before we conduct, we may state that it is unfortunate that such acts of judicial impropriety are repeated inspite of clear judgements of this court on the significance of Article 141 of the Constitution. Thus, in a judgment by a bench of three judges in Dwarikesh Sugar Industries Ltd. V. Prem Heavy Engineering Works (P) Ltd. and Anr., reported in (1997) 6 SCC 450, this court observed,

“32 When a position, in law, is well settled as a result of judicial pronouncement of this Court, it would amount to judicial impropriety to say the least, for the subordinate courts including the High Courts to ignore the settled decisions and then to pass a judicial order which is clearly contrary to the settled legal position. Such judicial adventurism cannot be permitted and we strongly deprecate the tendency of the subordinate courts in not applying the settled principles and in passing whimsical orders which necessarily has the effect of granting wrongful and unwarranted relief to one of the parties. It is time that this tendency stops.”

We may as well refer to Para 28 of the State of West Bengal and Ors. V. Shivanand Pathak and Ors. reported in (1998) 5 SCC 513, wherein this court observed,

“If a judgement is overruled by the higher court, the judicial discipline requires that the judge whose judgment is overruled must submit to the judgment. He cannot, in the same proceedings or in collateral proceedings between the same parties, rewrite the overruled judgment...”

28. In the circumstances, we have no option but to allow this appeal and set aside the impugned judgment and order rendered by the learned judge of Gauhati High Court dated 12th November, 2012. The Election Petition filed by the respondent No. 1, bearing Election Petition No. 1 (AP) of 2009, renumbered as Election Petition No. 1 (AP) of 2012, shall stand dismissed. The parties will bear their own costs.

Respondent(s)

IA NO. 7/2013 in CA No. 4820/2012

ORDER

1. By this application the applicant-appellant has prayed that the order dated 27th August, 2013 dismissing Civil Appeal in default be recalled and Civil Appeal be restored.

2. The applicant has broadly relied upon the fact that he was away to his constituency to attend the Independence Day function and then remained there for important constituency related works. The said constituency is about 400 km away from Itanagar. In the application for restoration, the applicant also set up the cause that he took the earliest possible mode of conveyance but he reached Delhi only in the evening of 27th August, 2013.

3. The restoration application is vehemently opposed by the respondent. The above grounds set up by the applicant are denied by the respondent and it is stated that as a matter of fact, the applicant was in Itanagar for the period 23rd August, 2013 to 27th August, 2013 and not in his constituency as stated by the applicant. It is further stated that the applicant travelled to Delhi on 28th August, 2013 from Guwahati by Spicejet flight. It is thus submitted that the applicant has made false statements and the restoration application deserves to be dismissed.

4. The respondent is right that the applicant did not travel to Delhi in the evening of 27th August, 2013, but he travelled to Delhi on 28th August, 2013 by Spicejet flight. This is admitted by the applicant in the rejoinder. It is stated by the applicant that there was some mistake in the restoration application in this regard.

5. In our view, nothing much turns on the aspect whether the applicant travelled to Delhi from Guwahati in the evening of 27th August, 2013 or 28th August, 2013. The crucial aspect is whether the applicant was away to his constituency to attend the Independence Day function as averred by him and remained there upto 25th August, 2013.

6. Vide order dated 8th October, 2013 the Superintendent of Police (Sec) PHQ, Itanagar was directed to hold an inquiry and report to the Court about the movement of the applicant for the period from 23rd August, 2013 to 27th August, 2013.

7. In pursuance of that order, the Superintendent of Police (Sec) has submitted his report (dated 21st October, 2013) on 29th October, 2013. The finding recorded by the Superintendent of Police (Sec) in his report is that the applicant was present at Aalo on 14th August, 2013 to 25th August, 2013. Due to some discrepancies in the inquiry report, further inquiry was conducted by the Superintendent of Police (Sec) and further report has been filed. It is reiterated in the second report that on the basis of available materials, it is assumed that the applicant was present at Aalo with effect from 14th August, 2013 to 25th August, 2013.

8. From the above two reports of the Superintendent in Police (Sec), the cause set up by the applicant deserves to be accepted. Moreover, the respondent has not chosen to file any objections to the two reports.

9. Pertinently, the appellant's advocate Mr Arun K. Beriwal had left practice as he was selected as Additional District and Sessions Judge and notice to make alternative arrangement was issued to him only on 16th August, 2013.

10. Having regard to the above, we are satisfied that applicant has been able to make out sufficient cause for his advocate's absence/his own absence on 27th August, 2013 when Civil Appeal was dismissed in default.

11. We, accordingly, recall the order dated 27th August, 2013 and restore the Civil Appeal to its original number. Interlocutory Application No. 7 of 2013 stands disposed of.

12. The order passed by this Court on 9th August, 2012 in Contempt Petition (Civil) No. 278 of 2012 and I.A. No. 5 in Civil Appeal No. 4820 of 2012 shall remain operative during the pendency of Civil Appeal.

13. List the Civil Appeal for final hearing on February 12, 2014.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

The 19th March, 2014

No. AR-75/2012/I.

Subject : Monitoring, and supervision of punctuality of Government servants in Government of Arunachal Pradesh including maintenance of biometric punching attendance system-procedures regarding.

Hours of Attendance :

The normal hours of attendance for Government of Arunachal Pradesh offices located in Arunachal Pradesh are as follows :-

(a) Ministries and Departments	—	From 9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. with lunch break from 1 pm to 1.30 pm.
(b) All other offices (Attached and Subordinate Offices)	—	From 9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. with lunch break from 1 pm to 1.30 pm.

The working hours of administrative offices outside Arunachal Pradesh may be decided by the Head of Office in consultation with the representatives of the employees. The Head of Office, in consultation with the representatives of the employees, would have the option to choose any time between 9.30 a.m. and 10 a.m. to start their offices with 7 hours working day including an obligatory half an hour lunch break. All the State Government offices located in one place should have the same timings.

Every employee is expected to be in seat and to start work at the prescribed opening hour. Ten minutes grace time may be allowed in respect of the arrival time to cover any unforeseen contingencies. Such late coming (within the grace time) may be condoned unless it becomes a matter of frequent recurrence.

Attendance Register :

Every employee should enter clearly his initials at the time of arrival and departure duly noting the time in ink. The register should be initialled at the bottom by the Section Officer or Superintendent or branch Supervisor and in his absence by the seniormost Assistant present in token of scrutiny. The register should be sent to the Branch Officer 10 minutes after the prescribed arrival time. Any person arriving thereafter should record his initials in the Branch Officer's room.

Maintenance of Attendance Register :

The Section Officer or Superintendent or branch Supervisor, who will maintain the Register in Form S. 37 for staff in sections including the Group 'D' (Now Multi Tasking Staff), will see that entries are made correctly. The Section Officer or Superintendent or branch Supervisor will draw the attention of the Branch Officer to the names of persons who are frequently or habitually late without prior permission.

The attendance of personal staff attached to Officers (including Group 'D now MTS'), except where there is a pool of Stenographers or other personal staff working under a supervisor, will be controlled by the respective officers.

In the absence of these officers, the personal staff will report to the Under Secretary or any other corresponding officer in-charge of administration unless otherwise ordered.

Recording of Non-Attendance :

The following abbreviations will be used by the Section Officer or Superintendent or branch Supervisor to denote the reasons of non-attendance :-

(1) Compensatory Holiday	—	CH
(2) Casual Leave	—	CL
(3) Leave of any other kind	—	L
(4) Restricted Holiday	—	RH
(5) Absent	—	A*

Late Attendance :

1. Half-a-day's casual leave should be debited to the casual leave account of a Government servant for each late attendance but late attendance up to an hour, on not more than two occasions in a month, may be condoned if this is due to unavoidable reasons. Suitable disciplinary action may be taken against the Government servant concerned in addition to debiting half-a-day's casual leave if he is persistently/habitually attending late.
2. Administrative Authorities should see to the enforcement of punctuality and supervisory officers should be very particular in scrutinizing the attendance registers.
3. Surprise daily checks may be carried out in one or two sections under the direct supervision of a senior officer.
4. The half-an-hour time-limit for lunch break must be scrupulously observed not only by the subordinate staff but also by the Supervisory Officers and periodical surprise checks should be made to ensure this.
5. The Ministries/Departments and other Government Offices should ensure punctuality in attendance and strict observance of the half an hour lunch recess in the offices under their control. It should be ensured that the prescribed working hours in offices are strictly adhered to by all and officers and staff do not overstay the prescribed lunch break. Habitual non-observance of scheduled hours for attending office is highly objectionable and will amount to lack of devotion to duty, thus attracting Rule 3 (1) (ii) of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
6. The case of a Government servant who leaves office early without permission before the time for closing of office should also be treated like late attendance and half-a-day's casual leave should be debited to the CL account for each such early departure from office.

When a day can be marked dies non and its effect :

Absence of officials from duty without proper permission or when on duty in office, leaving office without proper permission, or while in the office, refusal to perform the duties assigned to them is subversive of discipline. In cases of such absence from work, the leave sanctioning authority may order that the days on which work, is not performed be treated as dies non, i.e., they will neither count as service nor be construed as break in service. This will be without prejudice to any other action that the competent authorities might take against the persons resorting to such practices.

No marking of dies non for late-coming :

According to instructions above, the day can be marked as dies non by the leave sanctioning authority only under three circumstances, viz.,-

- (i) when the official remains absent from duty without prior information ;
- (ii) when on duty in office, the official leaves the office without proper permission ; and
- (iii) the official remains in office, but refuses to perform duty assigned to him.

From the conditions mentioned above, it is clear that an official can be marked as dies none even if he performs duty for a part of the day in case he leaves office without proper permission or when he refuses to perform duties while remaining in office. But a day on which an official comes late and works throughout the day during office hours will not be marked as dies non. It is accordingly clarified that treating the day as dies non for coming late is not contemplated in the rules. The proper course in such cases would be to debit the casual leave account of the official as per instructions issued from time to time.

No pay and allowances for the day of absence without authority :

An officer who is absent from duty without any authority shall not be entitled to any pay and allowances during the period of such absence.

Action to be taken for late-coming when no casual leave is at credit :

If an official who has no casual leave to his credit comes late without sufficient justification and the administrative authority concerned is not prepared to condone the late coming but does not, at the same time, propose to take disciplinary action, it may inform the official that it will be treated as un-authorized absence for the day on which he has come late and leave it to the official himself either to face the consequences of such unauthorized absence or to apply for earned leave or any other kind of leave due and admissible for the entire day. The same may be sanctioned by the competent authority.

Half-a-day's casual leave :

1. Half-a-day's casual leave if applied for by a Government servant may be granted to him and the existing practice of allowing a Government servant to attend office late or to leave early (with permission) should cease.

2. For the grant of half-a-day's casual leave, the lunch interval is to be the dividing line, i.e., a person who takes half-a-day's casual leave for forenoon session is required to come to office after lunch break. Similarly, if a person takes leave for afternoon session, he can be allowed to leave office at the commencement of the lunch hour. In offices which follow different office hours/lunch time, the Head of Office may decide as to what should be the dividing line for the grant of half-a-day's casual leave.

3. The balance at credit in the casual leave account of some Government servants may be in terms of full days plus half-a-day. In such cases there is no objection to the grant of half-a-day's casual leave, in conjunction with full day's casual leave, if so applied for. Likewise, even when the casual leave at the credit of a Government servant is in terms of full days, there is no objection to the grant of half-a-day's casual leave in conjunction with full day's casual leave. The existing restriction imposed on the number of day's casual leave that can normally be granted at a time, will, however, continue to apply.

Observance of proper decorum during the lunch break :

- (i) No Government employee should play cards on the lawns and such other places inside and outside office buildings.
- (ii) The game of cards should be confined to the recreation rooms or places approved for such purposes.
- (iii) No indoor games should be played in office buildings after 7.00 p.m. except on special occasions such as tournaments, etc.

Procedure for Biometric Attendance System :

The Departments/offices/organisations who have installed the biometric punching attendance system in their offices should also meticulously follow the above instructions. In place of manual Attendance Register, the Controlling Officer should take out a print from the system on appointed time i.e. 10 minutes after the designated time for beginning of office hours and keep it with him after duly authentication.

Submission of action taken report :

All the Departments should submit Action Taken Report as in the format annexed herewith for taking further necessary action by the HOD/HOO/DDO and the Department of Administrative Reforms.

Persons found violating these procedures/instructions will be liable to disciplinary action.

Chief Secretary to the Government of Arunachal Pradesh,

The 3rd April, 2014

No. EN/ID-02/2014(PT).—The following order issued by the Election Commission of India, New Delhi is reproduced below for general information.

ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA
Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi-110001

Dated : 2nd April, 2014

ORDER

No. 3/4/ID/2014/SDR-Vol. I.— 1. Whereas, Section 61 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 provides that with a view to preventing impersonation of electors, so as to make the right of genuine electors to vote under section 62 of that Act more effective, provisions may be made by rules under that Act for use of Electors Photo Identity Card for electors as the means of establishing their identity at the time of polling ; and

2. Whereas, Rule 28 of the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960 empowers the Election Commission to direct, with a view to preventing impersonation of electors and facilitating their identification at the time of poll, the issue of Electors Photo Identity Card to electors bearing their photographs at State cost ; and

3. Whereas, Rules 49H (3) and 49 K (2) (b) of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, stipulate that where the electors of a constituency have been supplied with Electors Photo Identity Card under the said provisions of Rule 28 of the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the electors shall produce their Electors Photo Identity Card at the polling station and failure or refusal on their part to produce those Electors Photo Identity Card may result in the denial of permission to vote ; and

4. Whereas, a combined and harmonious reading of the aforesaid provisions of the said Act and the Rules, makes it clear that although the right to vote arises by the existence of the name in the electoral roll, it is also dependent upon the use of the Electors Photo Identity Card, where provided by the Election Commission at State cost, as the means of establishing their identity at the time of polling and that both are to be used together ; and

5. Whereas, the Election Commission made an Order on the 28th August, 1993, directing the issue of Electors Photo Identity Card (EPIC) to all electors, according to a time bound programme ; and

6. Whereas, Electors Photo Identity Card has been issued to more than 97% registered electors in the country ; and

7. Whereas, the Commission has directed that 'Authenticated Photo Voters Slip' shall be distributed to the electors.

8. Now, therefore, after taking into account all relevant factors and the legal and factual position, the Election Commission hereby directs that for General Elections to the House of the People, 2014 and the State Legislative Assemblies of Andhra Pradesh, Arunachal Pradesh, Odisha and Sikkim and bye-elections from 27 Assembly Constituencies being held simultaneously, which have been notified/to be notified on 13-03-2014, 14-03-2014, 15-03-2014, 19-03-2014, 29-03-2014, 02-04-2014, 12-04-2014 and 17-04-2014, all electors who have been issued EPIC shall produce the EPIC for their identification at the polling station before casting their votes. Those electors who are not able to produce the EPIC shall produce one of the following alternative photo identity documents for establishing their identity :-

- (i) Passport ;
- (ii) Driving License ;
- (iii) Service Identity Cards with photograph issued to employee by Central/State Government/PSUs/ Public Limited Companies ;
- (iv) Passbooks with photograph issued by Bank/Post Office ;

- (v) PAN Card ;
- (vi) Aadhar Card ;
- (vii) Smart Card issued by RGI under NPR ;
- (viii) MNREGA Job Card ;
- (ix) Health Insurance Smart Card issued under the scheme of Ministry of Labour ;
- (x) Pension document with photograph ; and
- (xi) Authenticated Photo Voter Slip issued by the election machinery.

9. In the case of EPIC, clerical errors, spelling mistakes, etc. should be ignored provided the identity of the elector can be established by the EPIC. If an elector produces an Electors Photo Identity Card, which has been issued by the Electoral Registration Officer of another Assembly Constituency, such EPIC shall also be accepted for identification provided the name of that elector finds place in the electoral roll pertaining to the polling station where the elector has turned up for voting. If it is not possible to establish the identity of the elector on account of mismatch of photograph, etc. the elector shall have to produce one of the alternative photo documents mentioned in para 8 above.

10. Notwithstanding anything in Para 8 above, overseas electors who are registered in the electoral rolls under Section 20A of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, based on the particulars in their Passport , shall be identified on the basis of their original passport only (and no other identity document) in the polling station.
